U.S. v. Hoekstra Truck Equipment
Criminal No.: 1:93CR135 (W.D. Mich.)

U.S. v. Ride Equipment, Inc.
Criminal No.: 1:93CR133 (W.D. Mich.)

U.S. v. Wolverine Transportation, Inc.
Criminal No.: 1:93CR134 (W.D. Mich.)

One-count indictment was filed in U.S. District Court in Grand Rapids, Michigan, charging C.R. Equipment Sales, Inc. of Lansing, Michigan; Great Lakes Coach Sales, Inc. of Portage, Michigan; and McFadden Corporation of Grand Rapids, Michigan, with conspiring to fix prices, allocate customers and rig bids, in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, on the sale of buses and bus bodies to public school districts in Michigan. The conspiracy began in the early 1970s and continued at least until December 31, 1988.

Also filed with the same court were three one-count informations charging Hoekstra Truck Equipment Co., Inc. of Grand Rapids, Michigan; Ride Equipment, Inc. of Holland, Michigan; and Wolverine Transportation, Inc. of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan with the same charge covered in the indictment. These companies waived their right to indictment and entered into agreements to plead guilty and cooperate with the Department in any prosecutions in this matter.
